Typically, students should write the head of your practice in the enterprise. It was the manager during the passage of practice assesses your knowledge and ability to apply them in practice, subsequently displays it in the characterization, along with the description of the personal qualities of the student.

But in fact, it is usually obtained so that students themselves have to write characteristics themselves, and the manager only puts the signature and print. It often happens that practice is only two days, the first is a tour and the second is on the last day of practice when you put a signature and print. This usually occurs due to the fact that the head of the practice is either once, or there is no desire to mess with students, but if you are still a chantom that you want to go through full practice, the head will have to do you.

You can ask for a sample from your head, either at the Department.

If for some reason there is no possibility to independently write a description, seek help to professionals.

How to write a practice

Describing the duties performed during the passage of practice, you need to focus on the position of which you passed the practice

It is also important to assess the level of theoretical training and the ability to apply these knowledge in practice.

Then you need to describe the acquired skills.

You still need to describe the personal qualities manifested in practice. It is for example responsibility, ambitiousness, purposefulness, etc.

The conclusion indicates the assessment that a student has earned.

The characteristic that is written in accordance with all the rules will help your manager more accurately evaluate your skills acquired during the training.

Also, do not cost to forget that manifesting himself well when passing practice, you can get a job on the enterprise where the practice has passed, immediately at the end of the university. And as you know recently, the employment requires work experience, and where to get it if you only finished learning? Of course, in production practice, of course it goes only one month of summer, but you can negotiate all summer. Of course, during the summer holidays, I want to relax, but if you still spend time with benefit and work, then in the future it will be very useful to you, because you will have such a valuable thing as an experience. Which in our time means a lot and which is not to buy for money.
